MOTION TO STRIKE

Come now T. J. Smith, Thomas Thornby, Lee York and Richard Carter, directors of the voluntary association known as the Smith Ditch Company, one of the defendants in the above entitled action, and authorized to represent the said Smith Ditch Company, and make this special and respected appearance for the purpose of filing and arguing this motion and for no other purpose, and now move this Honorable Court to strike from the files in said action all of paragraphs 1 to 15 inclusive of the petition of the West Union Canal Company, for the reason that the said paragraphs are sham, frivolous, irrelevant and redundant.

This motion is based upon the records and files in said action.

Dated at Provo, Utah, this 25th day of February, 1922.
